

Driving F&I Performance.™

Sym-Tech Dealer Services is pleased to announce that Asim Ali has joined as Recruiting Manager.

Asim possesses a deep knowledge of the automotive industry and has effectively recruited experienced and qualified candidates for over 8 years. Most recently he recruited successfully for Nissan Canada's Head office and Regional offices.

As Recruiting Manager at Sym-Tech, Asim is working to ensure our growth is ongoing by continuing to add experienced, talented automotive professionals to our team.

Asim graduated from Humber College in Business Administration and went on to attend York University to obtain his B.A.

At Sym-Tech we strive to attract, develop and reward the top talent in the industry so that we can continue to assist dealers in driving their F&I performance. We are excited to welcome Asim to the team!
